

Questions and answers: Contracting Initiative

Below are answers to questions you may have about signing Horizon NJ Health's provider agreement.

Q1. Why do I need to sign this contract?

A1. All of Horizon NJ Health's participating providers must have a dually executed contract to protect the interest and establish the expectations of mutual agreement between parties.

Q2. What do I need to do?

A2. Sign the attached agreement and return the contract to Horizon NJ Health by June 28, 2019.

Q3. How will this impact my payments/rates?

A3. This is a seamless process that will not impact your current payments/rates. However, if the contract is not signed and returned by June 28, 2019, it will lead to termination from the Horizon NJ Health network.

Q4. When will the agreement become effective?

A4. The agreement will be effective the first of the month after it is received and dually executed.

Q5. Who can I contact if I have questions?
